FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
EASTERN DIVISION

SALLY WILSON,	)	CASE NO. 1:08 CV 1017

v.	)	JUDGE DONALD C. NUGENT
	)
	)	Magistrate Judge David S. Perelman
	)
COMMISSIONER OF	)	MEMORANDUM OPINION
SOCIAL SECURITY,	)	AND ORDER
	)
Defendant.	)

This matter is before the Court upon the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge David S. Perelman (Docket #17). The Magistrate Judge recommends that the Joint Stipulation to Remand filed by the Parties (Docket #16) be granted and judgment entered pursuant to the fourth sentence of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for remand to the Commissioner according to the terms set out in the stipulation.

Standard of Review for a Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation

The applicable district court standard of review for a magistrate judge's report and recommendation depends upon whether objections were made to the report. When objections are made to a report and recommendation of a magistrate judge, the district court reviews the case de novo. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b) provides:

The district judge to whom the case is assigned shall make a de novo determination upon the record, or after additional evidence, of any portion of the magistrate judge's disposition to which specific written objection has been made in accordance with this rule. The district judge may accept, reject, or modify the recommended decision, receive further evidence, or recommit the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

The text of Rule 72(b) addresses only the review of reports to which objections have been made; it does not indicate the appropriate standard of review for those reports to which no objections have been properly made. The Advisory Committee on Civil Rules commented on a district court's review of unopposed reports by magistrate judges. In regard to subsection (b) of Rule 72, the advisory committee stated: "When no timely objection is filed, the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." FED. R. CIV. P. 72 advisory committee's notes (citation omitted).

The U.S. Supreme Court stated in Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985): "It does not appear that Congress intended to require district court review of a magistrate judge's factual or legal conclusions, under a de novo or any other standard, when neither party objects to those findings."

Conclusion

The Court hereby ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Perelman. (Docket #17.) The Joint Stipulation to Remand (Docket #16) is hereby GRANTED. The case is hereby REMANDED pursuant to the fourth sentence of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), to the Commissioner of Social Security according to the terms set forth in the Joint Stipulation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
